I AM A CHILD

All the world waits for my coming,
All the earth watches with interest
What I shall become
Civilization hangs in the balance,
For what I am,
The world of tomorrow will be.
I am the child
I have come into your world,
About which I know nothing
Why I came I know not,
How I came I know not,
I am curious, I am interested.
I am a child
You hold in your hand my destiny,
Your determine largely,
Whether I shall succeed or fail
Give me, I pray you, those things
That makes for happiness
Train me, I beg you
That I may be a blessing to the world.

JUST PLAYING

When I'm building in the block room,
Please don't say I'm "Just playing "
For, you see, I'm learning as I play,
I'm learning about balance,
I may be an Architect someday.

When you see me up to my elbow in paint,
Or standing at an easel,
or molding and shaping clay,
Please don't let me hear you say ,
"He is just playing ."

For, you see, I'm learning as I play.
I just might be a teacher someday.

When you see me engrossed in a puzzle
Or some "playing" at my school,

Please don't feel the time is wasted in "play"

For, you see, I 'm learning as I play

I'm leaning to solve problems and concentrate

I may be in business someday.

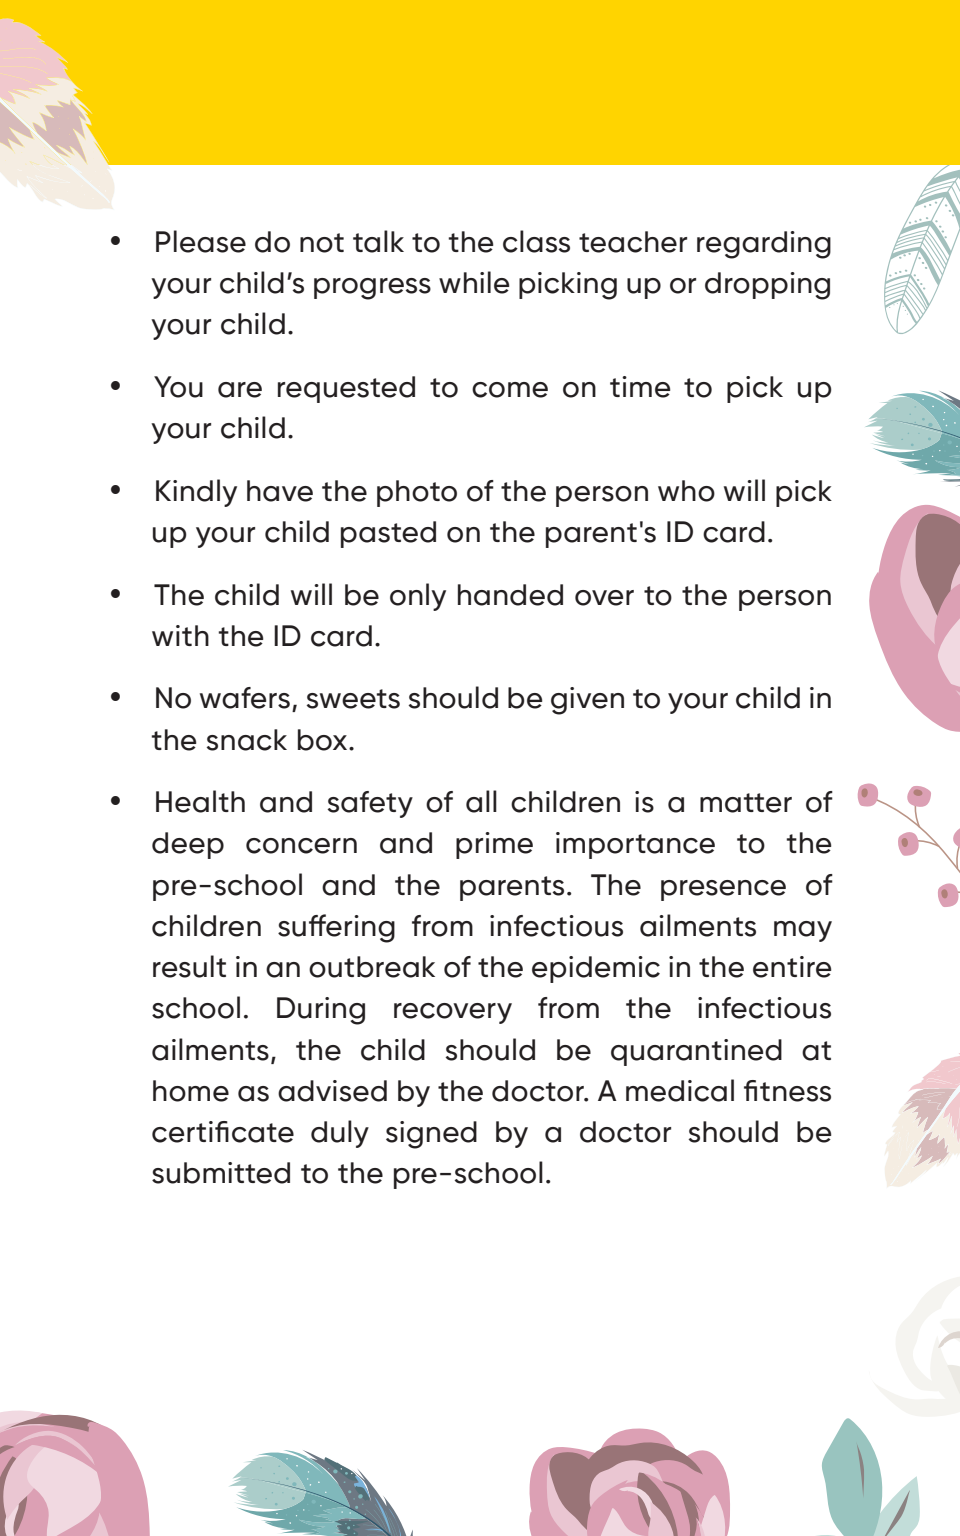

When you ask me what I've done at school today.

And I say, "I just played."

SOME SIMPLE THINGS YOU NEED TO FOLLOW

- Every child is entitled to a welcome kit comprising of a bag cap parents and children ID card, school organizer, and many more.
- Parents are expected to cooperate with the preschool authorities by ensuring regularity and discipline.
- We realize that our children are too young to reach school punctually on their own. Parents should take the responsibility of instilling the importance of being punctual for a very young age.
- Your child must carry the school bag with his/her name written on it. Please send an extra pair of clothes and a napkin in the school bag.
- Please pin up the ID card daily.
- Do not send your child in frilly clothes and jumpers or thick uncomfortable jeans.
- Dress your child in loose comfortable clothing that he/she does not feel guilty about dirtying.
- Parents are expected to attend the parents-teachers meeting held every alternate month, it is essential for you to understand your child's progress.

- Please do not talk to the class teacher regarding your child's progress while picking up or dropping your child.
 - You are requested to come on time to pick up your child.
 - Kindly have the photo of the person who will pick up your child pasted on the parent's ID card.
 - The child will be only handed over to the person with the ID card.
 - No wafers, sweets should be given to your child in the snack box.
 - Health and safety of all children is a matter of deep concern and prime importance to the pre-school and the parents. The presence of children suffering from infectious ailments may result in an outbreak of the epidemic in the entire school. During recovery from the infectious ailments, the child should be quarantined at home as advised by the doctor. A medical fitness certificate duly signed by a doctor should be submitted to the pre-school.

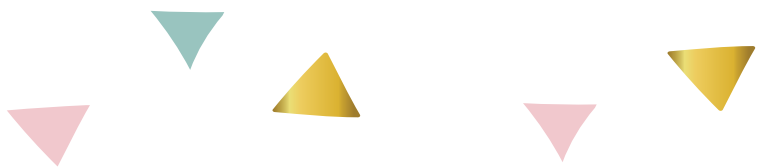

SCHOOL ORGANISER

- School organiser school should be brought to the pre-school every day.
- Parents must communicate their message to the teacher in the page provided for communication – parents to the teacher.
- Parents are requested to make a note of the list of holidays & other activities listed in the organiser.

EVERY DAY TIP FOR PARENTS

- Read to your child every day. Always keep plenty of books around (on shelves and beside tables, in the car, and anywhere else you spend time) and make regular trips to the library for more. Expose him/her to many different types of reading and listening
- Take your child to different places to stimulate learning. Taking a trip to the beach to play in the sand, going to playground on the other side to the town, or visiting a children's museum are all ways to engage your child intellectual.
- Encourage your child by showing delight in their work by hanging on the refrigerator door or wall for a few days. Store your child's work in a file or a portfolio. Never, throw his/her work in the bin or tear it in front of your child.
- Attending open house and other school events as often as possible will help your child to bond to the school. By being involved in with the school, parents show great support for their children and their children's education.
- Children do as you do. You can model respect (and self-respect), politeness, honesty, good choices, compassion, healthy expression of emotion, or behaviour or attitude you want them to adopt.
